

Which was read and referred to the committee on the coloured population.

Mr. Mann presented a petition of Julian Trago, praying to be divorced from her husband Abraham Trago;

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Harris presented a petition of sundry citizens of St. Mary's county, praying for a change of the road law;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Harris, Heard and Blakistone.

Mr. Scott presented a petition of Cornelius Wells of the District of Columbia, a revolutionary soldier, praying for a pension;

And Mr. Crabb presented a petition of Mary Hohne, of the city of Annapolis, praying for a pension for the revolutionary services of her husband;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Sifford presented a petition of Captain John Thomas, Jr. of the Jefferson Greys, praying for an act of incorporation;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the militia.

Mr. Ely presented a petition of sundry citizens of the eleventh election district in Baltimore county, counter to the petition praying that the place of holding the election in said district may be changed;

Which was read and referred to the committee to which it is counter.

Mr. Moores presented a petition from the commissioners of Harford county, relating to the public lots in the town of Belle Air;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Moores, Johns and Nelson.

Mr. Merrick presented a memorial of Albert Battle, a free man of colour, praying to be permitted to reside in the State of Maryland;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the coloured population.

Mr. Snowden presented a petition of sundry citizens of Anne Arundel county, praying that the name of "Elk Ridge Landing," may be changed to "Ashton;"

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Snowden, Sellman and Warfield.

Mr. Pratt presented a petition of John Davidson, of